GEORGE RANCH HISTORICAL PARK
Cattle Complex

Cowboy Job Posting

COWBOY INTERPRETER
Part-time (hourly)

Join our team to bring the joys of agriculture, ranching and cowboy life to the Houston area and the world beyond. Historic George Ranch attracts thousands of visitors from around the world every year. Cowboys at the George Ranch have the unique opportunity to share Texas Ranching Heritage as well as help preserve the Texas Longhorn breed.

Responsibilities include:

- Participating in daily 1930's inspired cattle demonstrations. Including:
  - Ranch style roping and ground work
  - Dipping vat demonstration
  - Working chute demonstration
- Performing daily chores including but not limited to:
  - Cleaning stalls
  - Sweeping barns
  - Repairing fences
  - Moving and stacking hay
  - Working Longhorn Cattle
  - Feeding and watering livestock
- Sharing the history of the ranch with guests of all ages during cattle demonstrations, public programming and school programs. Including but not limited to:
  - Interpreting and teaching about cowboy and ranch life for any of 4 different eras in the ranch's history
  - Occasionally doing house tours or helping with school programs for other sites.

We are seeking applicants who have:

- Strong communication skills and are able to communicate and educate large crowds about ranching history
- Horse/riding experience
- A passion for history
- Experience working with children
- A desire to share the cowboy way of life
- Ability to lift at least 50 lbs

George Ranch cowboys can expect to have time and opportunities to advance their horsemanship, delve into the rich history of Fort Bend County, or learn and practice leather-craft. We encourage our employees to pursue and practice new interests and skills that relate to 1930's cowboy and ranch life.

Interested candidates can submit a resume and cover letter to the Director of Education, Susan Vanderford, svanderford@georgeranch.org or drop off in person at 10215 FM 762, Richmond, TX 77469.

For questions or details, call 281-343-0218 ext. 278